ANNEXURE III - OUR CULTURE, VALUES, PHILOSOPHY AND KEY POLICIES

1. Employee Relations:

Trianz believes in being a fair and transparent Employer. If there are any issues or queries, relating to working conditions, we urge you to have a discussion with your Supervisor or HR department. Kindly ensure that the discussion and the result of the discussions are confidential.

2. Equal Opportunity Employer:

Trianz enters into employment contracts on the basis of the applicants' merit, qualifications and ability. We do not discriminate employment opportunities on the basis of race, color, creed, gender, religion, marital status, age, national origin, physical or mental disability, medical condition, sexual orientation, or any other consideration.

3. Confidentiality and Intellectual Property:

As part of employment condition, you are obligated not to divulge or disclose to any outsider or others either during your employment or thereafter, any information related to research papers, notes, templates or models that are created and used at Trianz. Any breach of this clause would lead to strict legal action.

Your employment with Trianz is a whole-time employment and is "work for hire". Accordingly, all copyrights and inventions that are created or arise during your employment with Trianz are the sole intellectual property of Trianz or its Clients, as the case may be.

4. Conflict of Interest:

Your employment with Trianz overrides all other occupational/consulting interests you may have. You are expected to obtain a written approval from the Chief Executive Officer of Trianz before you embark on any assignments outside Trianz.

5. Rules and Policies:

During the course of employment, at all times, you are required to abide by the rules and policies of Trianz. The rules and policies of the Company are available at the Company's Intranet and it is obligatory for every employee to read, understand and follow the same. No employment manual can anticipate every circumstance or question about policy. Trianz reserves the right to revise, supplement, or rescind any policies or portions of the Trianz Employment Manual from time to time as it deems appropriate, in its sole and absolute discretion.

6. Business Courtesy:

No employee may directly or indirectly accept from or provide to any representative of any organization with which Trianz has a business relationship any gift or favor other than an ordinary business courtesy or social amenity. No employee may solicit any gift or favor. This is viewed very seriously as an abuse of trust placed by Trianz in the employee and would attract severe penal action from the Company.

7. Change of Personal Information:

In the event there is change in status, like advancement of educational qualification, residential address, marital status, or nominees for insurance and provident fund, it is imperative that you inform your Human Resources representative appropriately.

8. Harassment:

Trianz is committed to providing a work environment that is free from all forms of discrimination and conduct that can be considered harassing, coercive, or disruptive, including sexual harassment. Actions, words, jokes, or comments based on an individual's sex, race, color, national origin, age, religion, disability, and sexual orientation will amount to violation of the company policy and would attract strict disciplinary action from the company, including termination of services of the employee.
